

Accessing the Library Catalogue

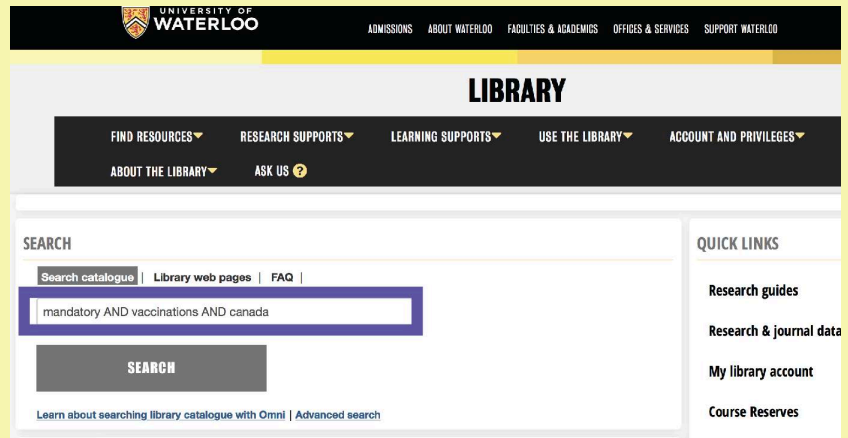

The Library Catalogue (Omni) can be used to find scholarly articles, books and book chapters.

Simple Search

Go to lib.uwaterloo.ca

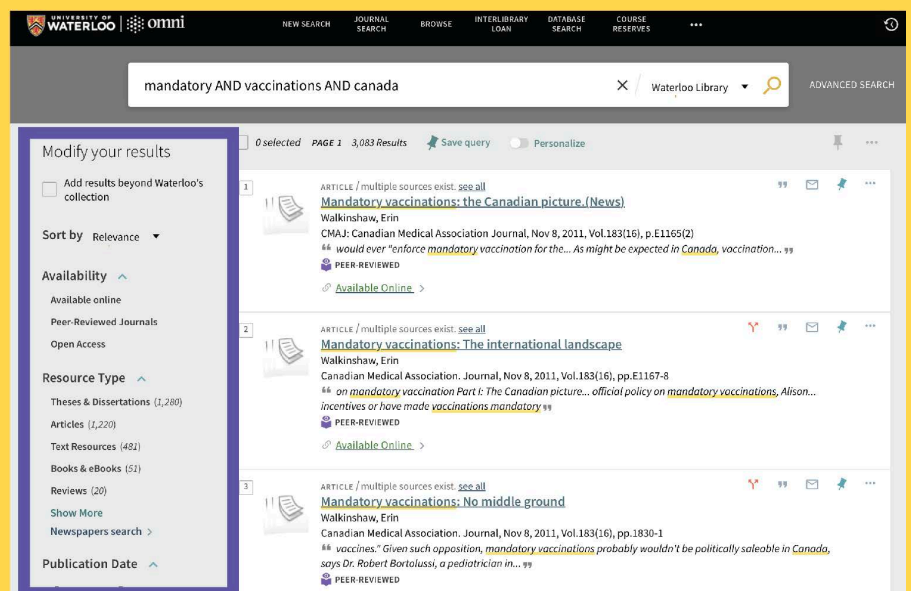

Enter your search terms and click Search.

Watch spelling!
The catalogue will not automatically correct spellings.

Search Results

A list of results will appear containing many types of publications including articles, books, conference papers, reports and more.

You can modify your results to focus on particular aspects:

- Limit to Available online.
- Limit to peer reviewed articles or books.
- Limit by date to find the most current research.
- Limit to reviews which provide easy to read overviews of the topic.