

MLA Style (9th Edition): Works Cited

Book

Author(s)

Book Title

Key Contributors

Dickens, Charles. Great Expectations. Edited by Margaret Cardwell,

0.5 in  new ed., Oxford UP, 2008.

Version

Publisher Name

Date

Formatting: Double-space your Works Cited page and use a 0.5 inch hanging indent for each entry.

Author(s): Reverse the first author's name, starting with their last name, a comma, then the rest of their name. If there is a second author, add a comma, the word "and" then the second author's first and last names (not reversed). If there are three or more authors, write the first author's name as described, followed by "et al." End the author information with a period.

Book Title: In italics, write the name of the book using title case (e.g. capitalizing all major words), followed by a period.

Key Contributor(s): If the book has additional contributors (e.g. editors, translators, illustrators, etc.) include their role, the word "by" and their name, followed by a comma.

Version: If there is more than one version or edition of the book, include that information next. Write the name of the edition and abbreviate "edition" to "ed." (e.g. Updated ed.). If the book is a numbered edition, write it in number form without superscript (e.g. 2nd ed.). Follow the version information with a comma.

Volume: If the book is one volume of a multi-volume set, write "vol." and the number of the volume you are using (e.g. vol. 2), followed by a comma.

Publisher Name: Write the name of the publisher followed by a comma. If the publisher is a University Press, abbreviate this to UP (e.g. U of Toronto P).

Date: Write the year the version of the book you are using was published, followed by a period.